Overview

George began his pupillage at Chambers in October 2024.

Prior to pupillage, whilst studying the bar course, George worked at Family Law Cafe where he assisted barristers and solicitors in Family Finances and Private Children Law.

George has a broad experience in pro-bono work. He volunteered at the Company and Insolvency Scheme in the High Court, assisting directors faced with winding up petitions and worked at the City Law Advice Clinic and the Westway Trust, working across employment, housing and social security law.

George is currently undertaking his first six-months of his mixed common law pupillage.
