Overview

Pierre began his pupillage at Chambers in October 2024.

He joins Chambers having spent a number of years working at the Bailiwick of Guernsey's Attorney General's Office, most recently focusing on prosecuting serious economic crime, civil recovery and international mutual legal assistance. Within this role, he prosecuted in Guernsey's Magistrates Court at a Special Constable in the full range of criminal proceedings from first appearance through to trials and sentencing.

During his time on the Bar Professional Training Course, he spent time undertaking pro-bono family law work.

Pierre is currently undertaking his first six-months of his mixed common law pupillage.
