

Siân Waldron

Year of Call: 2012

Telephone: 0121 236 0683

Email Address:

Overview

Siân is a specialist in children law, undertaking work in both public and private law cases. Siân appears at all court levels, dealing with the full range of cases, including those involving:

- Child death (including murder)
- Unexplained injuries at all levels of seriousness, including brain and life-changing injuries to the child
- Fabricated and induced illness
- Child sexual exploitation
- Allegations of sexual, physical, psychological and emotional abuse and chronic neglect
- Cases with international/jurisdictional issues, including abduction
- Deprivation of liberty
- Forced marriage and domestic abuse
- Parental alienation and intractable contact disputes

Siân is regularly instructed on behalf of local authorities, respondent parents, the children via their Guardian, and intervenors.

Practice Areas

Private Law Children

Siân is regularly instructed on behalf of parents, children via their Guardians, and family members. Siân appears at all court levels, dealing with the full range of cases, including those involving:

- All applications under the Children Act 1989 and Family Law Act 1996.
- Fact finding hearings involving allegations of serious domestic abuse, coercive and controlling behaviour, sexual abuse, and serious injuries to children.

- Parental alienation and intractable contact disputes.
- Forced marriage and female genital mutilation
- International/jurisdiction issues, including abduction and relocation.

Public Law Children

Siân is regularly instructed on behalf of local authorities, respondent parents, the children via their Guardian, and intervenors. This allows her to see each case from all angles.

Siân appears at all court levels, dealing with the full range of cases, including those involving:

- Child death (including murder)
- Unexplained injuries at all levels of seriousness, including brain and life-changing injuries to the child
- Fabricated and induced illness
- Child sexual exploitation
- Allegations of sexual, physical, psychological and emotional abuse and chronic neglect
- Cases with international and/or jurisdictional issues, including abduction

Siân is particularly experienced at representing vulnerable clients and children, including those with capacity/mental health issues.

Qualifications

LLB, University of York

BPTC, Kaplan Law School London

Vulnerable witness training

Recommendations

Legal 500 2024 - Family: Children & Domestic Violence Ranked: Tier 3

Legal 500 2023 - Child Law (Public and Private) Ranked: Tier 3

“Siân is diligent, articulate, approachable, committed and an excellent advocate. She is well respected by her peers and clients alike. Her case preparation is second to none.”

Memberships

Family Law Bar Association

Midland Circuit

Middle Temple

Reported Cases

Public Law

- T (A Child) [2016] EWCA Civ 1210
- Re AB (A Child) [2016] EWHC 3115 (Fam)

Privacy Notice

Click here to view Siân Waldron's privacy notice.